

Lynda Bogel

Senior Lecturer

Academic Degrees

Barnard College, B.A. with Highest Distinction in English Literature, 1967

Yale University, M.Phil., 1971

Academic Employment

Connecticut College 1971-1982, Instructor of English

Wesleyan University 1973-1974, Instructor of English

Cornell University 1982-present, Senior Lecturer

Honors and Awards

Barnard: Highest Distinction in English Literature.

Yale: Ranking Scholar

Cornell: The Clark Teaching Award, for outstanding undergraduate teaching,

Professional Service

I teach poetry writing to primary school students in the Ithaca public schools, two hours a week.

I write fiction and autobiographical narrative.

University Service at Cornell

Admissions Committee, College of Arts and Sciences

Judge for Time-Life Summer Apprenticeship Awards, College of Arts and Sciences,

Editor of the Cornell Cinema Calendar

English Department Lecturers' Committee

Pentangle

Board of Directors and Advisory Board, Cornell Cinema

Member, University Advisory Board on Women's Studies

Director of Undergraduate Studies, Feminist, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Dept

Undergraduate Affairs Committee, Chair, Feminist, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Dept

Core Faculty Committee, Feminist, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Dept

Academic Integrity Hearing Board, faculty member, 2004-2007, and 2009-2012

Academic Director, summer course for high school sophomores:

ONCAMERA. Intensive 3-week course, with TAs and six visiting

Film makers for afternoon seminar, BEHIND THE CAMERA and AFTER THE WRAP.

Cornell Adult University, Travel Writing Workshop, 1-week sessions every summer; Non-Fiction writing workshops, 1-week sessions every summer.