The Adelphic Award is sponsored by the Adelphic Cornell Educational Fund. Each semester an award of $300 is made for the best essay written in a First-Year Writing Seminar by a student whose native language is other than English. Honorable mentions, if any, will receive $100. Publication of the essay in next year’s Discoveries is also possible.

To be eligible for an award, the essay must have been written in response to a teacher’s assignment. The essay should, of course, be fully intelligible to a reader not familiar with the assignment or the course. The submission must include a complete and accurate list of all sources cited, in an accepted documentation format. It must also be accompanied by a copy of the assignment that elicited the essay.

To be eligible for the award, the following statements must be true for the student:

a) His or her first language is not English.

b) Less than 50% of his or her elementary school education took place in English.

Submissions are due in 101 McGraw Hall by Friday, December 19. No exceptions can be made.

Fall 2014 Adelphic Award Application

~Please Print Clearly. Do not staple. Use paper clips only.~

Instructor’s name___________________________________________________________

Department ______Course # and title___________________________________________

Student’s name ____________________________________________________________ College __________________

Student’s native language(s)_________________________________________________

To indicate that you are eligible for the Adelphic Award, please sign your name here___________________________________________________________

Local address______________________________________________________________ Class of ____________ Local telephone_________________________Email (Cornell and/or otherwise)____________________________

Home address (street, city, state, zip)___________________________________________

Home telephone_________________________ Student ID Number _____________________________

Should I win a prize, I give the John S. Knight Institute permission to publish, quote from, and/or distribute copies of my essay, and to distribute publicity to newspapers and other publications, local and/or national, about my winning the prize. I am prepared to send electronic versions of my text (not a PDF, but an editable text document) to Donna O’Hora (dlo1@cornell.edu) in the Knight Institute. I understand that I will receive the award for my prize-winning essay upon submission of the electronic text.

________________________________________________________

Title of Essay

Student’s signature_________________________ Date____________________